

Prayer - Deliverance and Restoration

Exodus 11: 1 - 3, Exodus 12: 35 - 36

The scriptures above show that God was not simply going to deliver His people for the sake of deliverance. God is also interested in how their wasted years as a result of being in bondage were going to be compensated for. The people had suffered; they have served as slaves for their slave masters. It was time for restoration and redemption.

God is not only a Deliverer but a 'Restorer' as well. [Joel 2: 25] His plan for us does not end at salvation. His plan includes restoring our losses, our spirit and reestablishing us to our lost place of divine glory. Whenever God thinks of delivering us, He thinks of restoring us as well. There's a link between your deliverance or freedom and the restoration you seek. You've lost so much because the enemy may be preying on you. Always remember, your deliverance is not complete until you are fully restored in his glory.

In a slavery environment, the masters are always happy while the slaves are dejected. It is human nature for some people to want to suppress others. This behavior is not so different from that of demons. They enjoy keeping their captives in slavery or bondage. They don't easily let go of their preys unless compelled.

That's where prayer comes in, pray to break free. Pray to be restored.

It's time to break out. It's time to rise in prayer to bring an end to that undesirable situation. Pharaoh never wanted to grant the people their freedom till God forced Him. Your deliverance or freedom will not come without persistent prayer and a determined spirit. Don't expect the enemy to let go without a fight or an intervention of a mighty force.

Prayer compels and prayer brings releases.

The people of Israel kept groaning until God brought down 'that one thing'. Keep praying intimately and deeply until the presence of God is manifested upon that situation. With your prayers and commitment, God will come hard against the enemy. Keep praying till God brings you out of bondage or trouble. It is time to pray! Do it now!

Pharaoh kept postponing the release of the slaves. He kept holding back their time of freedom. He kept setting for his own time. He kept breaking his own words and the promise of freedom to the Israelites. The enemy may not want to loose you, but God wishes and desires that you are free and restored in his glory. It is time to rise in prayer and overturn the plan and agenda of the enemy concerning your life.

Declare in your prayers that your deliverance, healing, restoration, and breakthrough will not be determined by the enemy neither will it be influenced by the time and the calendar of the wicked. The calendar and time of God say; this is your time for deliverance and restoration. So, rise in prayer for your deliverance and that restoration. God took almost all the jewels from the people of Egypt and gave them to the people of Israel because a lot had been denied them over the years. NOW IS YOUR TIME FOR DELIVERANCE, RECOVERY, AND RESTORATION.

An awesome FAVOR is on its way. Whatever you have been denied be it money, job opportunities, promotions, financial breakthrough, or successful marriage is coming to you. Restoration is the final stage of deliverance or salvation. Keep praying till you are there. You must recover all till you are fully restored. You will be blessed in multiple folds. Amen!

God, our Father knows how to compensate us when we are cheated. He can bring us into FAVOUR to retrieve and to recover all that we may have been denied over the years. Don't sit and wait, keep pushing in prayer. Continue to inspire the heavens to intervene on your behalf. Continue in prayer so the mighty army of God will descend upon the wicked. Your reward may have been forgotten or ignored but it is still yours and you will receive it with interest in Jesus' name.

PRAYER POINTS

Note: Some people are still in bondage. They are being preyed upon by the enemy, therefore, making it difficult to see any significant breakthrough or progress in their lives. Others are free and delivered but yet to be restored. Whatever your situation or state is, remember that the calendar and the time of God read; it is time for your deliverance and restoration and you will not be denied. Pray!

1. In this month pray for deliverance, recovery, and total restoration.

2. That even though you have been set free, whatever the enemy is still holding will be released unconditionally and without delay.
3. That God will remember your labor and compensate or reward you according to the multitude of His mercy.
4. That your breakthrough, reward, and promotion will not be determined or influenced by man but by God. God will always come to the rescue of the true believer.
5. That God, The consuming fire will continue to visit the enemy or anyone holding back anything of yours with fire till they release it.
6. That the FAVOUR of God will be on your side and crown your efforts as you go about your work and in your dealings with people.
7. That you will recover fully everything including your health as you desire to be restored and that your salvation and deliverance will be complete. [3 John 2]

Don't forget! You were saved to be free....
